Johnson's new book From Homeroom To Dormroom levels the playing field with a systematic approach that removes the anxiety of the college application process. The handbook highlights each stage beginning with the ninth grade, breaking down the process step-by-step, semester-by-semester enabling parents and students to begin preparing early. The month-to-month breakdown of the final push between 11th grade and the start of college ensures that deadlines and requirements are met with ease. Senior year is no longer a year of anxiety and rushing to make final preparations for college. This user-friendly roadmap with posted road signs helps college applicants and parents navigate the process and resolve transition issues. No matter what the target school, curriculum, degree, or career, discover how the guide offers a working format to set academic benchmarks, meet deadlines, address family budget issues, and resolve scheduling conflicts to achieve admission success. Empowering families, to make educated decisions with the confidence of a PHD (Pass Having Doubt). This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
