HEAT IN THE KITCHEN: (DUVAL-ADAMS FAMILY) (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Cloudart (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Matt Duval-Adams just can't stop himself from coming over all big brother when his sister's friend needs help and support. Ella has been coping on her own for most of her life and, although it's now spiralling out of control, she doesn't give in to accepting his help easily. In fact, what Ella really wants is Matt as her lover, not her brother. It doesn't take Matt long to give up on the brother act and give in to his desire, but by then Ella is running in the other direction. Can lust conquer all? Does love overcome adversity? This is the first book in the Duval-Adams series. Matt is an internationally acclaimed two Michelin-starred chef. His identical twin brother, Zander, is an investment whizz and the CEO of their catering and restaurant business. The other family members are their baby sisters, each successful in their own right and also identical twins. Tess is a jazz singer who is sought after in the States and France, and Ronnie is a Translator who seems to spend more time in Spanish and French hotel rooms than she does her own home. There are three more books to come in the series, covering each of the family members through their respective journeys to a happy ever after. All the family get involved in each other's story, they just can't help themselves! So, once you've read Matt's story, you'll be able to keep in touch with what he's up to in the later books. WARNING: This book contains one seriously hot chef, one beautiful and talented pianist, two sets of twins who love...
