The University of Chicago Press, United States, 1991. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book. An impressive and important cross-cultural study that has vast implications for history, religion, anthropology, folklore, and other fields. . . . Remarkably wide-ranging and extremely well-documented, it covers (among much else) the following: medieval Christian legends such as the 14th-century Ethiopian Gadla Hawaryat (Contendings of the Apostles) that had their roots in Parthian Gnosticism and Manichaeism; dog-stars (especially Sirius), dog-days, and canine psychopomps in the ancient and Hellenistic world; the cynocephalic hordes of the ancient geographers; the legend of Prester John; Visvamitra and the Svapacas ( Dog-Cookers ); the Dog Rong ( warlike barbarians ) during the Xia, Shang, and Zhou periods; the nochoy ghajar (Mongolian for Dog Country ) of the Khitans; the Panju myth of the Southern Man and Yao barbarians from chapter 116 of the History of the Latter Han and variants in a series of later texts; and the importance of dogs in ancient Chinese burial rites. . . . Extremely well-researched and highly significant. -Victor H. Mair, Asian Folklore Studies.
