In the heart of every parent, no matter how strong the love and child-parental ties, lies fear. Fear that their child could one day, in some way, meet up with harm or be taken from them. For Marie and Steven Boman, on the final night of their daughters sophomore year, their worst fear becomes true with their only daughters disappearance. 16 year old Elizabeth Boman, affectionately known as Lissy to her family and friends, is just like every other 16 year old girl, dividing her time among studies and friends at her local high school, looking forward to summer and the close of another school year.
