R. 10650, Revenue Bill of 1962: Prepared for the Use of the House and Senate Confereres on the Revenue Bill of 1962 This provides that where property is lost or destroyed as the result of a casualty or is stolen and is insured, reinvest ment of the insurance proceeds in replacement property is not to be eligible for the investment credit. This is designed to eliminate the allowance of a credit where the taxpayer has made no contribution of additional funds toward the acquisi tion of new property. This reduces the revenue cost of the credit by $25 million. This is a committee amendment. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
