Excerpt: . . . new doctrines, particularly Calvinism. You should guard against this with all possible care, for it is far easier to keep them out than to thrust them out. I commend you all to the grace of God, and am your affectionate friend and brother, John Wesley. In 1784, the twelfth conference began at Elliss chapel, in Virginia, on the 30th day of April, and ended in Baltimore, on the 28th of May. It was considered as but one conference, although they met first in Virginia, and then adjourned to Baltimore, where the business was finished. We agreed, that if any European Methodist preachers should come over recommended by Mr. Wesley, and would be subject to the American conference, preach the Methodist doctrine, keep the circuits they were appointed to, and be subject to Francis Asbury as general assistant, while he stands approved by Mr. Wesley and the conference, we will receive them; but if they walk contrary to the above directions, no appointment shall prevent them from being excluded from our connection. We had a gracious revival of religion this year in many of the frontier circuits, and the way was opening fast for us to enlarge our borders, and to spread the gospel through various places where we had never been before. The call of the people was great, for more laborers to be sent into the harvest. CHAPTER II. From the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1784, to the first delegated general Conference,...
