Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report on Deaf-Mute Instruction 1. The defective arrangement of the Exhibition, markedly inferior to that of Paris in 1867, rendered it difficult to make a comparative examination of exhibits of a similar character from different countries. This was true in an especial degree of the matter of deaf-mute instruction; that is to say, it was almost impossible to be certain one had discovered, even after long search, all that might exist in the Exhibition relating to this specialty in the departments of education or public charities. 2. For the credit of the several states of Europe where establishments for deaf and dumb exist, it is to be hoped that the following report may be found to be imperfect, and that much more than we were able to discover met the eyes of observers more fortunate than ourselves. Otherwise, the fact will pass into history that, of the hundreds of institutions in Europe, but five, and four of these in Austria, contributed anything to the Welt-Ausstellung. From the imperial royal institution in Vienna, a set of photographs appeared, showing with considerable clearness the arrangement of its buildings. From the institution at Briinn, specimens of steel pens manufactured in the establishment, together with some other unimportant articles of handiwork, were exhibited. The St. Polten school sent a series of picture-cards used in teaching beginners; and the institution at Gratz presented wood-carvings, executed by its pupils, fancy work, shoes manufactured in the institution, and specimens of penmanship. 3. In marked contrast to this meager presentation from the schools of Europe was the collection of reports, photographs, and publications to be found in the American department. Early in the...
