

The New Guinea (Classic Reprint)

By Beatrice Ethel Grimshaw

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 432 pages.

Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Excerpt from The New Guinea Among the rubber plantations Prospects of Para - The goldmine of the soil - Land that goes begging - The cost of rubber - About the coconut - A sisal hemp plantation - Ficus rigo - A splendid sugar country - Timbers still untouched; The wizard and the crocodile - Training for sorcery - The Great Fly River - To - Thursday Island - The pearl fishers - Walking alone in the depths of the sea - Wicked Goari-Bari - Willie and the soap - The scene of Chalmers - murder - A bit of boiled man - The rescue of Chalmers bones - The incredible West - Very nearly an adventure - The hysterical man-eaters - Order of the Imperial Shirt - The loyalty of Kaimari; Eastward in the Merrie England - The prettiness of Samarai - Very feverish - Hunting the Japs - The island world again - What they did in Milne Bay - A day in the gold mines - The man who lost his head - The unbelievable island - Did they eat...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE
[8.93 MB]

Reviews

Absolutely essential study book. It normally is not going to charge excessive. I am delighted to inform you that this is basically the finest ebook we have study during my very own lifestyle and can be he greatest publication for at any time.

-- Dr. Willis Paucek II

Absolutely essential go through ebook. It is actually rally intriguing through looking at time. I realized this ebook from my i and dad advised this publication to understand.

-- Prof. Demetris Rau III