

Blue Harvest

By Jack C. Kraywinkle

iUniverse. Paperback. Condition: New. 248 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.8in. Farming is not just Oscar Halvorsons livelihood but his life, and the Depression has taken nearly everything but the land itself. His acreage is still not entirely his own. Oscar faithfully paid his loans during the lean years, but he faces foreclosure soon, unless he can pay off the bank loan. Oscars plight has haunted him all winter. Banker E. A. Stordal is in no mood to bargain, and has ambitions of becoming a wealthy land owner. With the only life hes ever known at risk, Oscar gambles with fate and a bargain for a widows fallow land with the potential to save everything. In the midst of their arduous efforts, he finds redemption, a new life, and a late-blooming love. This beautifully lyrical story is a reassurance that its never too late for love. Filled with a spirituality thats ever-present in the characters lives and situations, Blue Harvest is a testament to survival despite overwhelming odds. This item ships from multiple locations.
