Excerpt: .ever slid, The faith of some great mystery to rid. Twas thought Beligion, from the pressure freed, Would to a more exalted place succeed; But, like the mercury, relieved of weight, She only fell into a lower state. Where men denounce the faith of Rome we trace Her equal libellers in every case: As Protestants--so Arians abused; And Manicheans in like style accused. Eome was idolatrous in every schism: The Pope, in foul religious despotism, Was Anti-christ; and papal Rome, upon Her seven hills, was plainly Babylon. This bright idea did not rise with you: In previous heretics it nourished too, Showing a kindred mark in all the crew; Who, in each war they separately make, Thus from one armory their weapons take. Yet the Reformers movement was impressed With traits distinguishing it from the rest; For Schism selected then no favoured man, But called up competition for the plan--Rome-fettered doctrine boldly to set free In the Augustan age of heresy. And so Heresiarchs, who rose before But singly, now came forward by the score, To change the faith of Rome with one intent, While in their plans of change all different. And though their works combined were not sogreat As single heresies of older date, Still wide enough, from each erected head, The scattered poison of the Hydra spread. We must admit, however ill-advised The measure was, it still was largely prized-r And not the less because it did begin From even an...
