Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Laurie Todd, or the Settlers in the Woods Tun work, of which the following is a full, corrected and careful transcript, is, in the phrase of booksellers, entirely out of print. I am not aware that any copies are to be found in this country elsewhere than on the shelves of a few circulating libraries. Seldom has a story, founded on fact, excited a wider interest or more favorable commentary than Laurie Todd. Most of the generation, however, by whom it was read and admired, have passed away, and a new edition is demanded by that laudable curiosity which its reputation has awakened in the minds of youthful readers. Moreover, the ancient interest of the story is kept alive by the fact that the quaint original, from which Mr. Gait drew his full-length portrait, is still in existence. Mr. Grant Thorburn, who has lived two years beyond the allotted three score and ten, may be found in these degenerated days of fact, not fable, at the well-known establishment called Niblo's garden, in Broadway, dispensing from his own counter, seeds, plants and books and the good old man is as hale and hearty as in earlier hours of his pilgrimage, with a freshness of spirits and a vigor of understanding unimpaired; for Time, who brings the inevitable yoke, imposes light burdens on my consciences, and with a touch, frosty but kindly, leads the friend of humanity to the tomb.
