

The Wild Folk (Paperback)

By Flora Kennedy

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Some folk are born wild. Some have wildness thrust upon them. When Lorna discovers the body of her childhood friend, Lachie, tangled by the tide on a Scottish Hebrides beach long-submerged family secrets and murderous truths rise to the surface threatening to wash away everything she holds dear. This is the kind of story that gets under your skin and ignites the wildness in your heart. An exquisitely written evocation of a 1970 s childhood on the west coast of Scotland, a haunting contemporary whodunit; each sentence of The Wild Folk is woven with magic. - Jackie Stewart, Mesmerising and beautiful, with a gritty contemporary Scottish fairy tale at its heart, The Wild Folk is perfect for readers of Sjon s The Blue Fox, Katherine Arden s The Bear and the Nightingale and Eowyn Ivey s The Snow Child. Praise for The Wild Folk: Lovely magical realism . The Wild Folk uses remarkable language to evoke the haunting magic of rural Scotland. Some of the imagery and even just the sentence structure was really stunning and emotional, especially at the end...
