TALES FROM THE WEDDING ALTAR

Christopher Matthews Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 175 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Rev. McNamara solemnly stands before the wedding couples, he hears some outrageous things the guests never hear; like the bride saying to the groom, I just felt the baby kick, . or the groom saying to the bride, This tux is giving me a wedgie. I have been performing weddings in Las Vegas for several years. There are things that I hear; things that I notice because prior to the ceremony, I am pretty much a wallflower and everyone feels comfortable speaking around someone they can't see. There are petty things spoken between jealous women (and men!) There are secrets revealed by the father of the bride no one hears, and most importantly, standing in very close proximity to the wedding couple at the altar where the closest people are four feet away; the small whispers between the couple are priceless! Comments range from You're beautiful! to I'm wearing the thong you bought me! -From the author - See more at: //sthash.YL6UuEmx.dpuf.
