She has interned for a famous clothing designer while living in New York City, worked for an eccentric handbag designer in Palm Beach and even spent some time at a popular women's magazine. Finding herself back home and unemployed, Summer begins a quest to find her dream job - and a future husband. Through a chance encounter, she lands a position as a personal assistant for the beautiful, self-proclaimed socialite, Adelle, a happily married wife, expectant mother and the owner of a successful footwear company seeking help in order to continue her life of leisure. Before long, Summer is living the high life being showered with Adelle's lavish gifts - Gucci bags, extravagant trips in private jets and even star-studded parties - but then a startling secret is revealed, forcing Summer to face her own sliding doors moment and make a life-changing decision. Does she give up this luxurious lifestyle and leave or compromise her integrity and beliefs in order to stay?.
