

The Black Rainbow: The Story of a Black Boy (Paperback)

By Prabhat Gaurav

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The black Rainbow is the story of a black boy s struggle with social injustices, rejections and depression. Krishna, a final year engineering student of an Indian Engineering college faces blatant discrimination in his career because of his skin complexion. Other students of his class are selected by companies while he was left to struggle in off campuses with utmost disappointment. He undergoes a series of events when he learns that our society differentiates peoples on the basis of skin color and personality. The life of the peoples who are fairer color is somewhat easy, but those who are of dusky complexion, the success in career and life is quite very difficult due to people s bigotry. People love to mingle with fair color peoples while dark color peoples are getting snubbed quite often. Girls prefer fair color boys to make a boyfriend. The dark complexion persons have to undergo a lot of insults affecting their psychological behavior and obvious nature. The story depicts the insults and rejections happen to Krishna which he constantly tries to overcome. He is patient that one...
