After overcoming the trials of Isle, with its baneful Monsters and the feuds of its peoples, the company is finally able to return to Sekondome - but their troubles are far from over. Teryn has now joined their numbers, and if keeping one Isler a secret had been difficult before, keeping two will prove even more challenging; especially when she insists on walking right under the enemys nose. Chased out of the war-torn, shell of a town of Smoke Ridge, the company finds themselves in the last place anyone wants to be - the dead land of Felinis, shrouded in confounding mists that cause any who wander there to lose their way. Led on and divided by the mysterious apparitions, the company falls victim to an ancient and powerful force that imparts upon them first a truth and then a charge. The truth: the King Landrik that now sits upon the throne is in fact, an impostor, and has been since before the war on Felinis. He is a being as archaic as Jasinda itself, and will stop and nothing in his crusade for cataclysm. The charge: they are the once chosen to stop it. However, Landrik isnt the only enemy left unchecked. The Shaydes continue to hunt for Bill and KaiTor in the underground, and another threat shall ascend that no one say coming. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
