Sophie Becks dreamed of being a successful stockbroker, in a world where men dominated and thought of women as showpieces, rather than equal partners. Even though Sophie was born into a family of wealth, she longed for a life of independence and freedom on her own terms. Finding that she has a special gift for being a broker, and making her first million in a matter of months, her life is turned upside down when her handsome George Clooney and 45;like boss sends her off to his oceanfront Hamptons mansion. Sophie soon discovers on this trip that it and 39;s not the sand nor the waves that catch her fancy and her heart, it and 39;s the mysterious, dark and 45;haired, Arabian man next door who causes her to reconsider her life and career as she knows them. But, who exactly is this man, and why does this affair disturb Sophie and 39;s boss, Duren, so very much In the end, she must choose between love, her lucrative career on Wall Street, and an enchanted life of Le Pin wine, Pule cheese, and men playing polo in Provence. To whom or what will she say au revoir This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
